I, the undersigned, hereby give permission for the staff of the Camp to seek appropriate medical attention for the camper during the period of the Camp and for the medical attention to be given and for the camper to receive medical attention in the event of accident, injury, or illness. I will be responsible for any and all costs of medical coverage policy. I further certify that I am of good health and have no physical or other impediment which would endanger me from participating in camp.

I, for myself, my heirs, executors, and assigns, hereby waive, release, and discharge the University of Michigan, its officers, agents, and employees ("releases"), from any and all claims for damages for death, personal injury, or property damage which I may have, or which may hereafter accrue to me, as a result of participation in the camp, and I further agree to indemnify and hold harmless the University of Michigan, its officers, agents, and employees from liability claim or action for damages which in anyway arise out of my participation in this camp, even though that liability may arise out of negligence of carelessness on the part of releasees.

I further understand that accidents may occur during camp and that participants in camp may sustain personal injuries and or property damage as a consequence thereof. Knowing the risks of such activity, I hereby agree to assume those risks and to release and hold harmless the University of Michigan, its officers, agents, and employees from any liability to me or my heirs or assigns for damages arising out of or related to my participation in camp.

Marcia Pankratz

As the Head Field Hockey Coach at the University of Michigan, Marcia has guided the program to eight Big Ten Championships, five Big Ten Tournament Championships, 11 NCAA appearances winning the National Championship in 2001. She understands what it takes to build a championship program and be a successful field hockey player. A 1988 and 1996 Olympian and two-time Pan American Silver Medalist, Marcia was first named to the U.S. National Team in 1985. She has competed in over 110 international matches including two

World Cup Teams, winning the Bronze Medal in 1994. As a two-time collegiate All-American, she was awarded the Big Ten Medal of Honor and was named Big Ten Athlete of the Decade. With this experience, Marcia will help you learn how to train, compete, and perform like a champion. Quoting Pankratz – “To be great, you must be passionate about what you do, push outside your comfort zone, and be relentless in the pursuit of your goals. “

Ryan Langford

A long-time fixture on the USA Field Hockey men's national team, Langford has 10 years of experience as an assistant coach at the NCAA Division I level. Prior to arriving at Michigan, Langford served two seasons as an assistant coach at James Madison (2007-08), where he helped JMU post the third-best winning percentage in the nation (18-3). Langford also previously served as an assistant coach at Temple University (2005-07), Appalachian State (2000-05) and Southwest Missouri State (1999-2000). He received USA Field Hockey Level III coaching certification -- the organization's highest level of coaching accreditation. Langford brings a wealth of valuable international playing experience to the Wolverine program. A seven-year member of the USA Field Hockey men's national team (1994-99, 2001-03), Langford boasts 26 international caps.
